IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY

CRIMINAL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

CRIMINAL WRIT PETITION NO.2519 OF 2006

Shri Nitendrasingh @ Nitin Kumarsingh Patil ... Petitioner

Vs.

The State of Maharashtra & Ors. ... Respondents

Ms. Asmita Sarangdhar for the petitioner.

Mr. Mhaispurkar, A.P.P. for the State.

Mr. G.R. Agrawal for added respondent 8.

CORAM : SMT. RANJANA DESAI & D. B. BHOSALE, JJ.

DATED : 20TH MARCH, 2007.

P.C.:-

1. The petitioner is an accused in C.R. No.I 111 of 2006 registered at Manor Police Station, Thane (Rural). The petitioner is seeking some direction to the Director General of Police, Maharashtra State as regards investigation of the said case.

2. We have heard Ms. Sarangdhar, the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and Mr. Mhaispurkar, the learned A.P.P. for the State.

3. In short, the grievance of the petitioner is that certain relevant facts are not being looked into by the Investigating Agency. In the circumstances, in our opinion, the following order will meet the ends of justice.

4. The petitioner shall furnish a compilation of all the documents with index, which according to the petitioner are relevant, to the Investigating Agency within a period of one week from today. The Investigating Agency shall consider those documents and conduct their investigation in the light of those documents. We keep all contentions of both sides open. The petitioner can raise all the contentions after filing of the charge sheet, if he so desires. No further orders are necessary in this petition. We expect the police to expedite the investigation. The petition is disposed of in the aforestated terms.
